Volunteer Terms and Conditions

- The volunteer agrees to offer their time and skills to the Aurora Black Community without financial compensation. The primary purpose is to contribute to the organization's mission and goals.
- The volunteer agrees to perform tasks and duties assigned by the organization and adhere to ABC's directions, instructions, mission and vision.
- The volunteer acknowledges the confidential nature of certain information and commits to maintaining confidentiality regarding organizational matters, beneficiaries, and any sensitive information encountered during their volunteer service.
- The volunteer agrees to maintain open and transparent communication with the organization, promptly informing them of any changes in availability, concerns, or issues that may affect their volunteer work.
- The volunteer agrees to undergo any necessary training or orientation programs the organization requires to fulfill their responsibilities effectively.

Code of Conduct:

- The volunteer agrees to adhere to the organization's code of conduct, treating all individuals with respect and dignity and refraining from any disrespectful behaviour that may harm the organization's reputation. In addition, the volunteer agrees to contact the association's president immediately about any concerns.
- The volunteer commits to following health and safety guidelines provided by the organization and reporting any safety concerns promptly, especially during an event.

Termination of Volunteer Service:

- Either party may terminate the volunteer service at any time, with or without cause. The organization reserves the right to terminate volunteer service if the volunteer fails to comply with the terms and conditions outlined herein.

By signing below, the volunteer acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agree to abide by these terms and conditions.
